Do you, or someone you know, have difficulty getting to the library?

A Home Library Service is available to East Dunbartonshire residents. This free service offers home delivery of books including large print, music, spoken word, Playaways or CDs. We are also able to provide DVDs and Videos.

Visits are made on a regular basis to homes and retirement communities to deliver books and other materials. Specific authors and titles may be requested or staff can select materials based on your reading preferences.
