3.0	POLICE REPORT
3.1	Community Police – Apologies had been intimated for this meeting by the Community Police Officer
4.0	MINUTES OF 21ST JUNE 2017 MEETING
	Acceptance of these minutes was proposed by Mark Billington and seconded by Gayle McNeill.
5.0	MATTERS ARISING
5.1	Crosshill Road Traffic Violation
	This incident was reported to EDC Roads Department, as recommended. A reply had been received from Stuart Orr, Traffic Officer, Neighbourhood Services. Neither he nor his colleagues had been aware of such incidents but he undertook to raise the matter at his regular meetings with the traffic management team at Police Scotland.
6.0	TREASURER'S REPORT
	The Treasurer reported movements of funds during June and July. On paper, there was a loss for the period of £1,500 but there were still some funds from the Gala to come in, which would make the loss between £300 and £700. The standard Community Council grant for 2017-2018 had not yet been received and the Convener undertook to raise this with Community Council Liaison at EDC.	AM
7.0	PLANNING
7.1	Weekly list – A list of current applications had been circulated. The status of the proposal at Woodilee Road was confirmed (appeal had been rejected) and a previous proposal at Boghead Road was renewed at a smaller scale. As LCC had approved it previously and not representations had been made, this proposal was accepted.
7.2	Cala Development at South Claddens – Standing Orders were suspended to allow two residents from Newton Road to participate, representing themselves and others. Various issues were raised, including proximity and the position of a SUDS pond relative to properties

		ACTION
	at the end of Newton Road; opposition to connecting the proposed footpath from the development to Newton Road; poor appearance of a high retaining wall in this area and anxieties about the effectiveness of the drainage plan concerning flooding and effects on the wetland area. The last of these issues had been included in LCC's draft response to the Planning process and the meeting recommended the residents to make their own representations individually on the other issues. The Planning Convener and Secretary had circulated reports on various aspects of the proposals and subsequently, a draft response pointing out various conditions that could be imposed by the Planning Board. The meeting agreed that the draft response should go forward as LCC's definitive response to the Planning process.	JMcF
